MAN HELD AFTER ADMITTING FIRE INSURANCE PLOT

Man. Confesses to Robbing
Grave of Body Buried in His Home.

HELD FOR ARSON

Stenographer Accompanies
Him to California After Burning of Body.

(By the Associated Press)

NAPA, Calif., Dec. 6.—Edward J. Salstad, who was arrested admitting putting a body in a cottage at Lake Nebagamon, Wisconsin, four years ago in an effort to make it appear that he had died in the fire so his wife might collect $62,000 insurance money, according to District Attorney Thomas C. Anglim of Napa.

With Salstad was Miss Dorothy Anderson, who was his stenographer before his sudden death and who, according to Mr. Anglim, admitted accompanying him on his flight from Wisconsin. Miss Anderson was detained for further questioning.

Salstad is being held in jail here on charges of arson at the request of the authorities of Superior, Wisconsin.

Girl Accompanies Him.

Salstad and Miss Anderson were traveling in an expensive automobile and told officers here they had been visiting various parts of the country.

The district attorney said that after questioning Salstad admitted he had put the body of a man about his size which he had stolen from its grave, into the cottage at Lake Nebagamon. Then he said he set fire to the building and fled. Advice from Superior said that four cottages were burned in the fire that followed.

Mrs. Salstad, convinced that the bones found in the ashes of the cottage were those of her husband, later married Ross Robertson of Eau Claire and begun legal action to collect the insurance. The companies resisted payment but a jury in federal court declared Salstad dead and ordered the companies to pay. The companies appealed to the circuit court of appeals at Chicago and hearing of argument in the cases was held last month but no decision had been handed down.

Yellow Dog Day in Ada to Bring Pups to Payment

Ada in the grip of the Yellow Dogs. Beginning at 9 a. m., Friday, a drag net will be spread over the city, by the squads of Yellow Dog catchers, reinforced by the Yellow Dog tamers and they will lay their hands on every pup caught with fleas on every pup and separate them from one shekile. Should pups whine, yelp or snarl, he will be brought before the Yellow Dog Judge who is as crooked as a snake, and will be fined an additional berry or simoleon, and in addition will receive the honorary degree of the Order of the Yellow Dog. When pups are initiated, he will be entitled to suck eggs, catch chickens, and point sparrows on the streets of Ada without fear of being muzzled.

There will be the entire kennels of Henryetta and Holdenville here to put on the degree. The number of this kennel is 13, the day is Monday, and lucky the dog who participates. All Shriners must wear their Fezes during the day.

The Yellow Dog parade will begin promptly at 2:30 o'clock from North Broadway to the Convention Hall, where the Henryetta Kennel No. 1 will put on the degree work. Schools will be dismissed at 2 o'clock in order to allow the kiddies to see the parade.

CHRISTMAS SPIRITS CONTINUE TO MAKE UP POLICE BLOTTER

Pre-season Christmas spirits continued to stagger into the police station and later depart minus the regular fee set by the city ordinance on charges of drunk and disorderly conduct.

Two arrests on charges of drunkenness constituted the whole of police court action.

A special session was necessary yesterday afternoon to mete out justice on two other charges on the same offense.

Mayor W. H. Fisher stated that drunk charges are becoming regular happenings in police court.

Hits Girl With Brick; Fined

I. E. (Shorty) Shaver, alleged hurler of the brick that brought grief and suffering to Ora Parker last Thanksgiving evening, was sentenced to thirty days confinement in the county jail and fined $100 and costs, the limit penalty, by Justice H. J. Brown after Shaver had been found guilty by a jury.

According to testimony brought out in the trial before Justice Brown this morning, Shaver came to the Parker home Thanksgiving evening in the absence of Mrs. Parker, who had left her daughter with Francis Loman, a friend, in a drunken condition and refused to leave over the protests of the girls.

Shaver is alleged to have been bodily forced from the home and further infuriated by a light blow on the head with a hatchet delivered from the hands of Miss Loman.

The jury spent little time in deliberation over the verdict.

REDUCTION COST GOVERNMENT AIM

Coolidge Suggests Reduction of $270,000,000 in Federal Operating Expense.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—A reduction of $275,000,000 in the operating expenses of the federal government during the next fiscal year is proposed in the annual budget transmitted to congress today by President Coolidge. Total expenditures are estimated at $3,080,444 and receipts at $3,762,078 leaving a surplus of $395,634,634.

These estimates are on the basis of existing revenue laws, however, and should congress reduce taxes by the more than $300,000,000 recommended by the administration much of the projected balance would be wiped out.

Appropriations requested for the year beginning next July 1 aggregate $3,018,069,946, or $260,365,622 less than those for the current fiscal year. President Coolidge said this reduction was in response to Executive instructions in the preparation of estimates by the various departments and federal agencies.

"This was essential to a continuation of the policy of strict and drastic economy," he said. "That is the administration's undebatable policy. It has been adhered to unwaveringly in the past and we shall shew to the line in the future."

The cost of national defense next year is placed at $548,531,238, a reduction of $35,000,000 as compared with this year. Military pensions, retirement pay, World War allowances and the like will take $256,300,000 of interest and $482,277,975 for retirement of securities. The interest payment shows a reduction of $50,000,000 as compared with that for the current year.

Navy Department Expense.

Of the total of $311,000,000 of expenditures by the Navy Department, $55,000,000 is proposed for ship construction, $15,000,000 for the air service, and $1,000,000 for the scrapping of naval vessels.

The largest single item is the pay of the navy, $116,000,000.

Out of the War Department total of $314,000,000, $12,735,000 is proposed for the air service; $28,000,000 for the National Guard and $3,800,000 for fortification.

Expenditures for rivers and harbors are estimated at $45,786,000 as against $42,793,225 this year.

An additional $1,600,000 for prohibition enforcement is asked of congress, President Coolidge stating that a considerably enlarged field force should be provided. He added that he would present to congress soon a supplemental estimate of $20,000,000 mainly for additional vessels for the coast guard because of the need for a material increase in the personnel and equipment of the service "for the purpose of combating more thoroughly rum-running and unlawful importations."

If this appropriation is granted the president said he would ask for an addition $6,000,000 later for a similar purpose.

Tax Refund High.

The total appropriation proposed for prohibition and narcotic enforcement is $10,531,324 as against $8,824,602 for the present year.

The largest single item in the $225,000,000 of expenditures by the treasury department is $91,530,000 for the refunding of taxes erroneously collected. The cost of

Kerr Breathes New Spirit Of Progress In Veteran's Ranks

The future of the Norman Howard post, American Legion rests to a great extent upon its officers and more especially its commander, Robert Samuel Kerr, who was placed in charge of legion affairs on November 27, at the election of officials.

Kerr, a lawyer, orator, veteran and exponent of legion principals has assumed the responsibilities of leadership within the ranks of former service men with the knowledge that one of the most important years of legion history is facing the post during his administration.

Chosen from the ranks of veterans, who represent every department of America's military strength in war time, Kerr is ambitious to promote the aims of Ada veterans and to aid the disabled and needy veterans who bore their part of the conflict.

The new commander of the Norman Howard post is truly one of Pontotoc county's own, having been born three and one-half miles southeast of Ada twenty-seven years ago. Kerr graduated from the East Central state normal here, attended the Oklahoma Baptist university at Shawnee for one year and later completed a year's work in the Oklahoma University at Norman.

Robert S. Kerr

Kerr's military service which entitled him to membership and entitled him to membership and of ficialdom in the Norman Howard post, American Legion began with his entrance in officers training camp May 12, 1917. He was commissioned a second lieutenant August 15, 1917. Kerr landed in France in August, 1918, with the 87th Division and returned to the states in May, 1919, with the 28th Division.

Kerr was admitted to the bar in Oklahoma on December 5, of last year and has been actively engaged in the practice of law as a junior member of the firm of McKeel and Kerr since that time.

With his election to the post of commander, Kerr stressed his program for the progress of post activities during the year and emphasized the need of co-operation from the members in meeting the gigantic program facing the Norman Howard post during the year.

Kerr's first stroke as commander of the post came with his announcement that legion financial obligations must be met before the post can hope to stand an important factor in civic and fraternal affairs of Ada.

In the membership drive which is being launched over the county, Kerr favors "selling the legion to those entitled to its benefits and membership." A list of committees have been named to canvass the city in a systematic campaign to secure memberships. The work of committees already reported indi-

Nimrods Boom Out Bird Season

Former veterans, who remember the chilly sensation caused by the distant rumble of artillery, may well sympathize with rural residents of Pontotoc county who have heard the barrage of nimrods stage the opening of bird season December 1.

While the feeble quail has remained in hiding to a certain extent, local gun toters are in no sense prone to accept the season as a bad one and in consequence have raided every covey in the pasture lands and marshes of Pontotoc county.

Hindered by the long drouth and following deluge of rains, bird migration has not reached the stage of past seasons. Bird assailants have, never-the-less, bagged considerable game during the first few days of the season.

An extract from the report of Bill Coffman, veteran gun toter, reveals the typical situation for nimrods this season. Bill reports that his wanderings for a day netted him, two quails, four doves, three squirrels and one rabbit.

Coffman, who is one of the supply men for hunters, states that the enthusiasm of the season has been revealed in the increase in sales of hunting license, ammunition and firearms.

COOLIDGE SEEKS TAXATION SLASH

President Voices Opposition to Soldier Bonus in Economy Step.

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—President Coolidge specifically recommended to Congress today a reduction of more than $300,000,000 in the national tax bill and at the same time presented views in opposition to a soldier's bonus.

The Executive, in his message transmitting the annual budget, said frankly that "any program of new expenditures on a large scale would make tax reduction impossible for years to come." He added that tax reduction "would certainly tend to align the whole people in support of economical administration of government" which he declared is becoming "every day more necessary."

"I recommend a revision of tax," Mr. Coolidge said, "along lines which will effect a reduction of income taxes by taxing earned income more lightly than income from business or investments; by reducing the percentage of the normal tax, and by reducing the surtax rates, with commencement of their application at $10,000 instead of $6,000. I also recommend repeal of the tax on telegrams, telephones, and leased wires, and of the tax on admissions, and revision of the miscellaneous taxes which are a source of inconvenience to taxpayers, and difficult to collect. On the other hand, amendments which would cause some increase of revenue should also be made to existing income tax laws relative to deductions of capital losses; deductions from gross income for interest paid and nonbusiness losses sustained, wherein income from tax-exempt securities is involved; and the manner of taxing community incomes. These changes would reduce taxes by more than $300,000,000, which is safely within the probable surplus."

Urges at Economy

"I know of nothing which will give the people of this nation greater assurance that we are unalterably committed to a campaign of economy in public expenditures than a reduction of our present taxation. It will take from the realm of extravagant expenditures, or expansion of the business of government beyond those necessary to keep pace with a growing nation and fixes the measure of our requirements an amount which will represent what is actually necessary to carry on efficiently the proper business and functions of government and meet our fixed debts charges payable out of current revenue. It would certainly tend to align the people in support of economical administration of government, and I frankly state that such an alignment is becoming every day more and more necessary because of the influence which it will have upon the states and the other lesser subdivisions of our body politic."

"In stating that a reduction in taxation carries with it an obligation not to embark an extra-

COOLIDGE HANDS CONGRESS TASKS IN HIS ADDRESS

Mellon Tax Revision Was Given Unqualified
Support.

BONUS NOT FAVORED

Coolidge Follows Custom of Wilson in Addressing Legislators.

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—President Coolidge addressed congress today for the first time since he became chief executive. Appearing before a joint session of the house and senate he presented recommendations touching all the major problems confronting the nation.

The Mellon tax revision program was given unqualified endorsement, but the soldiers' bonus was disapproved.

An immediate reorganization of the freight rate structure was recommended and the chief executive declared that if permissible consolidation of the carriers proved ineffective, "the authority of the government" would have to be invoked.

American adherence to a world court with reservations was endorsed, but Mr. Coolidge declared this was not a partisan question and should not assume an "artificial importance."

He endorsed government assistance in transportation of exportable wheat, but declared against price fixing and against repeal of the rate section of the transportation act and also against revision of the tariff law.

Silence Is Broken.

Mr. Coolidge's address broke the studied silence he has maintained on public questions since he entered the White House. His message had been awaited not only because it definitely outlined the administrative policy of the administration, but because of the political effect it may have both upon his own fortunes and those of his party.

In addressing congress in person Mr. Coolidge adopted a custom re-established by Wilson and pursued by Harding. He spoke in the house chamber standing at the clerk's desk in front of the speaker's dais where he had sat as vice-president on the occasions when his late chief addressed congress.

There was an unusual demand for tickets to the house galleries to hear the first speech of the new president and even standing room was at a premium long before he began to speak.

Outside on the capitol plaza another large crowd heard the address through an amplifying device and at the same time it was carried throughout the entire country by radio.

Crowd on Floor.

On the floor of the house itself the crowd was so great that members complained that they were unable to get the seats to which they were entitled.

House officers were directed to clear the floor of persons not entitled to admission just before the president's arrival.

Mrs. Coolidge sat in the executive gallery. She had arrived before the house assembled at noon and received an ovation from the floor and galleries.

Senators, representatives and spectators stood and applauded when the president appeared. The applause expanded into cheers from the Republican side as he shook hands with Speaker Gillette and President Cummins of the senate and bowed to his audience.

The chief executive spoke slowly and deliberately without effort at oratory. The first applause came when he declared the United States saw no reason to limit its joining the League of Nations.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—A legislative program touching almost every aspect of national life was presented by President Coolidge today in his first message to Congress.

He endorsed President Harding's proposal for American membership with reservation in the world court; unqualifiedly approved a soldier bonus legislation.

He also went on record as favoring stimulated consolidation of railroads, reorganization of the railroad freight structure as applied to farm products; and government assistance in the disposition of exportable wheat. He declared against price-fixing for farm products; against repeal of the rate section of the Transportation Act; and against revision of the tariff law.

ARREST MATLOCK ON COURT ORDER

Statutory Charge Held Over Former Candidate for Oklahoma City Office.

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 6.—Eugene Matlock, secretary of the state marketing commission and former Oklahoma City minister and candidate for mayor in the last city election, was arrested last night at Guthrie with Mrs. William S. Smith, wife of his cousin who has been living at his home.

The arrest was made by order of J. K. Wright, Oklahoma county attorney. Matlock and Mrs. Smith spent the night in the Logan county jail at Guthrie and were to be returned here late today by two deputy sheriffs who went to Guthrie to bring them back.

Statutory charges were filed against Matlock by the county attorney today. Wright said a district court grand jury in session here has been receiving testimony concerning the alleged relationship between Matlock and Mrs. Smith. Wright said that Matlock had been requested to remain in Oklahoma City subject to call before the grand jury.

Wright declared that he was informed last night by the woman's husband that Matlock had gone to Guthrie to meet her and that he ordered the arrest at that time.

Matlock was for four years pastor of a church in a suburban district here. He withdrew from the mayoralty race last April in favor of another candidate. Before coming to Oklahoma City he had been a bartender in Texas and a prize fighter.

MELLON'S TAX SUGGESTION SET OUT IN NEW BILL

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The treasury department already has drafted and sent to the capitol a bill embodying Secretary Mellon's suggestions for tax revision which will serve as a basis for committee consideration in the house.

A figure over the treasury proposals has been brewing for several weeks and early presentation of the revision measure is expected to bring the issue to the front at the very outset.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

HUMILITY OF CHRIST:—Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus. Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.—Phil. 2:5, 3.

WALTON'S SURRENDER.

There is quite a contrast between his latest move and the arrogant talk indulged in two or three weeks ago by Gov. Walton when he was threatening to jail and shoot members of the legislature and put the entire state under martial law and send the people to bed at 6 o'clock and finally as a climax undertook to prevent an election. Walton has made threats in great number but when his bluff has been called he has backed up, just as he did when he saw the people were determined to hold an election in spite of his orders to stop it at all hazards.

The governor's call for a special session coming after he had declared repeatedly that he would never take such a step is a sign of surrender to the inevitable. He was evidently certain that the courts would decide that the election was legal, hence the best thing to do was call the legislature and once more seek to take the offensive by specifying mob violence as the subject for legislation, and like Ajax of old, defy the lightning to do its worst. Had he called the legislature a month ago he would have stood a much better chance of winning the fight than he does now. He has done a great deal that has brought criticism down on his head in that time and with the verdict of the people as expressed at the polls it is certain that he no longer holds the confidence of the majority hence the legislature will likely to be in a more aggressive mood.

When the session meets the impeachment charges will likely be the first matter considered. The governor should be given the same consideration granted any other man under accusation, exonerated if nothing is found to justify the charges, and convicted if the charges are sustained. If he is acquitted he will have had all his trouble in staving off an election for nothing.

Next the legislature should carry out the program favored by some of the leaders who have already expressed themselves. They promise a thorough investigation of every department of the state government and action where there appears to be ground for it. This should be done without fear or favor and every crook thrown out. It is not to the interest of either the state or the Democratic party to cover up anything or to shield a crook, no matter what his party affiliations are. There is every reason to believe that this will be done, for the people are tired and disgusted with the way things have been going. The legislature can also do a great deal of good by abolishing a whole string of jobs created at its last session and also the governor's state police force. If this bunch, which is not authorized by law in the first place, has ever done anything for the preservation of law and order no one has ever heard of it. Just what has been paid them no one seems to know. However, the state has been taxed heavily to pay the salaries of useless appointees of the governor and it is time to draw the line. There is much to do and here's hoping that the legislature will measure up to the expectations of the state.

According to a well known writer on European affairs, France is in a fair way to become the predominant nation of Europe. He is of the opinion that the blundering of British diplomats has thoroughly estranged Great Britain and France, hence France will in the future act without consulting her former ally. He figures that with the influence France commands with other continental nations her influence will be supreme and having occupied the Ruhr with every indication of expecting to remain there indefinitely has nothing to fear from Germany, hence Great Britain's influence in European affairs will be very slight in the future.

The threat by some of the women politicians to join forces with the governor because the silent vote killed their equality amendment at the election of last week will not tend to add to their prestige in political matters. In the first place every voter had the right to cast his ballot as it suited him and in the second there is no way of finding out which side ignored the question. No doubt this was done by voters on both sides of the Russell amendment.

Auditor Childers is holding up the pay warrants of Walton's gunmen until they prove they have done something to earn their money. With the attorney general's opinion that a governor has no right to issue commissions to special police officers it looks like these men may get what they are entitled to—nothing.

The opening of an oil field near Wewoka has brought home to the citizens of Seminole county the need of better roads and they are launching a campaign for that purpose. The more good roads the better, so here's wishing our neighbors luck.

Let a NEWS WANT AD get it for you.

THAT DARNED SKUNK AGAIN!

The Hero of the Week

(Wichita Falls Times)
A few days ago dispatches from Salt Lake City told of the arrest there, at the instance of J. Frank Norfleet, of Hale Center, Texas, of one M. P. Hunt, alias W. B. Spenser, who, it is charged, is one of the men who buncoed Norfleet out of $40,000 in a Fort Worth hotel in November, 1919.

Back of this arrest is a story of the most dogged persistency. Norfleet was a ranchman and a sheriff when he was made the victim of the bunco gang. An ordinary man would have reported the matter to the authorities, perhaps would have attempted for a month or two to assist them in apprehending the swindlers, and then have returned to his home a sadder and wiser man and have attempted to forget the whole affair. But Norfleet was no ordinary man. It is true that he reported the matter to the authorities, but he evidently knew enough about such matters to know that while the authorities were willing to do what they could their resources were limited. Norfleet, whom it appears the loss of $40,000 did not bankrupt, set about to bring to justice the men who had fleeced him. He determined not to quit the trail until he had accomplished his purpose. The trail is said to have led him to every state in the union and to two foreign countries. It has taken four years of his time, but it has resulted in the arrest of nearly half a hundred confidence men in different cities. In Denver alone thirty men were arrested, of whom twenty were convicted and sent to the penitentiary.

This would have satisfied 999 men out of a thousand. But Norfleet was not satisfied. There was still one of the three men who swindled him at large. The man who was arrested at Salt Lake City a few days ago admitted that he is this man.

Norfleet might have been better off had he returned to Hale Center after his loss in Fort Worth and devoted his time and energies to recouping his losses. His efforts to run down the gang must have further depleted his fortune. But he will wager his satisfaction over his accomplishment for any amount of money. He has performed a genuine public service. And the story of his persistency will live long after he is dead and gone.

Ideas of Ownership.

(Eufaula Journal)
Here are a few signs of the times for people to think about:

A member of a country club recently posted a notice reading about as follows: This is a club of gentlemen. The "gentleman" who borrowed tennis balls from my locker without asking my permission will of course return the same. But many people will only make one guess and it will be a correct one, that the owner never got back those tennis balls.

A young man who has been working for a summer resort hotel, tells how he was one day gathering wood for open fires run by the hotel on cool evenings. A pretty girl came out from one of the nice cottages in that resort and helped herself to a good supply of the hotel wood, and remarked "The Lord helps those who help themselves."

The stealing of souvenirs from hotels has become a custom among travelers. Towels, table ware, and anything conceivable is carried off. It all makes travel more costly and the conscientious people have to pay for the depredations of the less scrupulous.

The manager of a certain railroad restaurant used to complain that he always had to lock up his silver when parties of college boys go through. Many other instances could be given.

All these folks come from families who pride themselves on respectability and culture. Yet they have loose ideas on the subject of property. When such ideas filter down into the so-called masses, they sometimes take the form of a desire to appropriate property belonging to the wealthy. Then they are loudly called "bolshhevism." When people get lawless ideas, you can never tell get lawless ideas you can never tell will stop.

Kerr Breathes New Spirit of Progress

eates that a good majority of the ex-service men of Ada will be included in the organization this year.

The most important problem of the administration will come with the entertainment of state veterans in their annual assembly here next year. Kerr intimated in his opening suggestions to the membership that past members began early in the year with their plans of entertaining the former fighters here.

Kerr also urges that the legion quarters in the convention Hall be furnished sufficiently to induce members to meet in their quarters in firmer bonds of fellowship. With the assistance of able officers, Kerr is confident that the work of the legion will be met with the same spirit prevalent in crisis of the war period.

ADJOURNMENT AT HAND, SENATORS SPEED WORK

(By the Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Dec. 6—With adjournment for the year now definitely set for next Saturday, supporters of anti-klan legislation in the lower house of the legislature prepared to invoke substantial action in speeding up consideration of the senate bill in order that an adequate act may be passed before the recess.

Facing the house when it reconvened today was an amendment to the measure which would make public membership lists of secret organizations. A similar amendment introduced at the house session yesterday precipitated a furious debate and the proposal was assailed by klan sympathizers as unjust and defended by anti-klan leaders as the only means to make the measure sufficiently drastic.

Y. W. C. A. Meeting. The Y. W. C. A. met Wednesday, December 5, at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Mackin explained to the association about the International Student Volunteer Convention to be held at Indianapolis, Ind., in January. College students from over the world will attend. Six students, representing different churches of Ada, will be sent from East Central. All expenses of the students will be met by the school and the church to which each student belongs.

Miss Hornbeak offered some valuable suggestions.

It was voted that the Y. W. C. A. will meet each Thursday at 4 o'clock in the music room.

Fumes of Gas Stove Result in Death of Two Girls in Home

(By the Associated Press)

PONCA CITY, Dec. 6—Myrtle Meek and Pearl Cason, 13-year-old school girls, are dead and Pauline Behar, 7, is in a serious condition as a result of inhaling fumes from a gas stove in a bath room at the home of Mrs. Behar today.

The older girls had been left with Mrs. Behar's two children while she went to a town nearby. When she returned she found the Meek and Cason girls dead and her daughter unconscious. Her two-year-old son, asleep near an open window, was uninjured.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

WHY NOT?—O ye simple, understand wisdom; and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.—Proverbs 8:5.

When it comes to variety Ada is hard to beat. The city has a whole string of industries and various attractions, hence has a first class circus right here at home and a creditable menagerie in connection. This, of course, is the Honest Bill show which owns its quarters and spends the winter here. It has always been popular with Ada people for two reasons; it is a good clean show and Honest Bill has been booster for Ada from the beginning of its residence here. In keeping with his spirit of boosting and helping home enterprises he has on several occasions donated part of the proceeds of a performance to some worthy cause and recently capped the climax by donating the receipts of two performances to the building fund of the Presbyterian church. When it comes to enterprises sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce he is always on hand at the conferences and gets right down in the collar when some hard work is to be done. The point is that he sets an example for boosting that others might do well to follow. Ada would never have been more than a one-horse village had it not been for the hustlers who located here in the early days and who built a town in spite of obstacles. It is now up to the later arrivals to keep the good work going and build on the foundations laid by the pioneers.

As has been expected, the Republicans in the lower house of congress reached a compromise Wednesday and on the ninth ballot re-elected Gillett of Massachusetts speaker. However, the insurgents won the main point they were fighting for: an agreement to amend the rules of the house and make them more liberal. At first the regulars appeared to think the progressives could be whipped into line or would weaken after a few ballots and made no special effort to reach an agreement, but they finally realized their error and came to time. The Republican majority in the house is very slender and it will be hard to pass any strictly partisan legislation at this session.

And now the tariff question is coming to the front in Great Britain. For more than a century free trade or low tariff rates has been the policy of the nation, but now with heavy imports from other countries competing with British goods high tariff advocates are making themselves heard. At all events the question will provide a standing campaign issue for the Britishers just as it has with us. The tariff issue is like the weather it is always with us and never settled long one way or the other.

Straw votes taken by certain periodicals some months ago indicated that Henry Ford was about the most popular presidential possibility to be found. However, the South Dakota conventions do not bear this out, for although he had supporters in both the Democratic and Farmer-Labor conventions he ran far behind McAdoo in one and LaFollette in the other. One trouble with Henry is that no one knows just where he stands on questions of the day and are not willing to take chances on him.

All signs point to the organization of a national Farmer-Labor party which will put nominees in the field for president vice president next year. In all probability LaFollette of Wisconsin will head the ticket and a lively campaign will follow. The new party will no doubt absorb most of the socialist vote to start with and if a fair sized vote can be drawn from the farmers and laborers the party may cut considerable figure in some states.

The cartoonists are all busy reminding congress of the many tasks confronting it, in all of which Old Man Congress is shown to be somewhat disturbed at boogies that face him. Among these unruly kids are reduction of taxes, the soldiers' bonus, booze question, farm problems and a few others. At all events it is not a pleasing prospect with elections less than a year off.

Instead of the pensive reflection of the poet that one by one the leaves are falling, around the capitol at Oklahoma City it is one by one the heads are falling, chiefly those of state pensioners attached to the pay rolls under the Walton regime. Among the latest to fall are some in the adjutant general's office. The highway and health departments had already been trimmed and it is likely that others are in for a similar fate.

The News carries a digest of the president's message delivered to congress this afternoon. Coolidge has held a tight rein on his tongue since he went into office and this message breaks a long silence which caused much speculation concerning the president's attitude on various matters. The question is now answered.

It is no figure of speech to say that President Coolidge's voice was heard throughout the land today. By means of radio his message to congress was heard in the most remote corner of the nation.

POINCARÉ'S IDEA: "CRUSH IT IN ANY FORM"

ANTI-KLAN FORCES OF COUNTY HOLD SESSION

A county wide meeting of the National Law and Order League of America, was held at the Convention Hall Wednesday evening, to consider the question of amalgamating with other anti-klan organizations of the state. Judge U. G. Winn of Ada and Dr. L. M. Overton of Roff were the principal speakers of the evening.

The meeting was presided over by Dr. Overton and he was elected to represent the organization at a general meeting at Oklahoma City Friday. Thirty-six new members were reported.

TOURIST GET THRILL FROM WATCHING ACTORS

A number of tourist, viewing the marvel of Southern California for the first time, got an unexpected thrill when they chanced to view the screening of one of the big scenes of "Her Reputation." Thomas H. Ince's latest picture, dealing with the power of the press.

Mr. Ince's home in Beverly Hills was used as the location for the screening of a Spanish marriage fiesta, one of the spectacular scenes of the production. The home is such perfect type of old Spanish architecture that it is frequently mistaken for one of the old Spanish missions.

While the fiesta scenes were being made there, a rubber neck wagon passed by one day. The actors were waiting for a scene to be "shot" and tourists could see a black-skirted "priest" in his skull cap, pacing back and forth, his fingers covering his crucifix. Picturesque señoritas in flame-colored dresses strolled leisurely among the trees or sat talking with graceful "caballeros" on the garden wall. When an eager old lady in the sightseeing party demanded to know the name of "that mission," the "speller," after an instant of rapid thought, replied, "That, madam, is one of the first mission stations established in California. Every year, in memory of the padre who founded it, the Spanish families in Los Angeles gather here for a celebration."

"Her Reputation" will be shown at the McSwain theatre, today.

LAWTON.—Turkey raising is becoming an important industry in Comanche county. A local producer dealer, was recently obliged to herd over 4,000 of the fowls in a pasture here because of a lack of pens. About 3,000 birds were in his pens.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The daily average gross crude oil production of the United States decreased 115,250 barrels for the week ending December 1, totalling 2,083,000 barrels, according to the weekly summary of the American Petroleum Institute. A decrease of 103,100 barrels in the production of the Powell field in Texas accounts for substantially all of the decrease of 115,250 barrels.

MOVIELAND GETS MANY BUT FEW MAKE GOOD

(By the Associated Press)
HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Dec. 6.—Scores of young girls, movie-struck, arrive here every week, most of them with no recommendations beyond flattering notices in home-town papers, according to the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce, which has started a campaign to warn young persons throughout the country of the futility of finding screen jobs, unless they are qualified and have been encouraged to apply at the studios.

The Chamber of Commerce estimates the population of Hollywood at 85,000, of whom, it states, less than 15,000 are engaged in the film industry.

The girls who drop in from the ends of the earth all are willing to become stars, but most of them are unable to find even minor parts. With their funds exhausted, many of them turn out to be a problem for social and civic workers.

The Chamber is endeavoring to spread broadcast information about how few the chances are for cinema glory and how many are the trials and privations on the path to such an ambition.

There are so many ways to serve Kellogg's Bran—the one great aid to humanity!

You will enjoy eating Kellogg's Bran because its nut-like flavor appeals to the taste. And, think what each mouthful is doing to drive constipation out of your system and to re-establish health! That's because it is ALL BRAN. Kellogg's Bran is scientifically made to relieve suffering humanity—IT WILL DO THAT AS NO OTHER FOOD CAN!

Physicians recommend the regular use of Kellogg's Bran for mild or chronic cases and as a preventive. Bran, eaten each day and in proper quantity, sweeps, cleanses and purifies the alimentary tract.

Get away from pills and cathartics—Kellogg's Bran will give you permanent relief from constipation.

Do not confuse Kellogg's Bran with common bran. Kellogg's is cooked, krumbled and ready to serve. It can be used in the most delightful baking projects without in any way reducing its regulatory value. Try raisin bread or muffins or griddle-cakes made with Kellogg's Bran. Recipes are printed on each package.

Kellogg's Bran is nationally eaten for health's sake as a cereal—in winter time with hot milk. Others prefer it sprinkled over hot or cold cereals. Another way is to mix it with hot cereals just before serving. It can also be cooked with cereal. In each case add two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's Bran for each person; in chronic cases as much with each meal.

Kellogg's Bran is sold by all grocers and is supplied in individual packages at first-class hotels and clubs. Ask for it at your restaurant!

The pungent, spicy aroma that delights you on opening a can of White Swan Coffee tells you at once that all the original strength and flavor has been retained. This freshness and fragrance is the secret of its distinctive taste.

Ask for White Swan at your grocer's—one and three pound full weight cans—whole or ground.

QUART OF WATER CLEANS KIDNEYS

Take a Little Salts if Your Back Hurts, or Bladder is Troubling You.

No man or woman can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Eating too much rich food creates acids, which excite the kidneys. They become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood. Then we get sick. Rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys, or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, begin drinking a quart of water each day, also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from the pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys may act fine.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush and stimulate the kidneys; also to help neutralize the acids in the system, so they no longer cause irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness. Jad Salts is inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drinking which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby often avoiding serious kidney complications. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.—Adv.

Making his first pronouncement of many public questions, the President presented a series of succinct recommendations without attempt at argument. He used exactly nine words in disposing of the bonus question. After urging adequate care for disabled former service men and generously in providing such care, he said: "I do not favor the granting of a bonus."

World Court Brief.
The treatment of the world court and the Mellon tax plan was almost as brief. In approaching the court problem he noted that American foreign policy always had been guided by the principles of avoidance of permanent political alliances sacrificing independence and or peaceful settlement of international controversies. He called attention that the United States acting on these principles had for nearly twenty-five years been a member of The Hague Tribunal and added that the proposed world court was "a new and somewhat different plan."

"This is not a partisan question," he added. "It should not assume an artificial importance. As I wish to see a court established, and as the proposal presents the only practical plan on which many nations have ever agreed, though it may not meet every desire, I therefore commend it to the favorable consideration of the Senate with the proposed reservations clearly indicating our refusal to adhere to the League of Nations."

The endorsement of the Mellon plan was presented in the course of discussion of the fiscal condition of the nation, during which the President called attention that through the budget system and economy in expenditures, the necessities of the government, exclusive of the Postoffice Department, had been brought down to $3,000,000,000.

"It is possible, in consequence, to make a large reduction in the taxes of the people," he continued. "A proposed plan has been presented in detail in a statement by the Secretary of the Treasury which has my unqualified approval. A very great service could be rendered through immediate enactment of legislation relieving the people of some of the burden of taxation. Of all service which the Congress can render to the country, I have no hesitation in declaring this one to be paramount."

Tribute to Harding.
The President prefaced his message with a tribute to President Harding, declaring "the world knew his kindness and his humanity, his greatness and his character," and that "he has made justice more certain and peace more secure."

"He is gone," Mr. Coolidge said. "We remain. It is our duty under the inspiration of his example to take up the burdens which he was permitted to lay down, and to develop and support the wise principles of government which he represented."

From this basis the President then launched upon his recommendations which, in addition to those relative to taxation, world court, transportation and soldier legislation included:

Government operation of the war-built merchant marine until shipping conditions are such as to allow it to be disposed of advantageously.

Strengthening of the Coast Guard to combat rum smuggling; rigid regulation of the major sources of liquor production; suppression of interstate traffic in liquor and promotion of respect for law.

Continuation of the policy of restrictive immigration, with immigrants to be selected abroad, and the immediate registration of all aliens.

Strengthening rather than weakening of the army and navy with additional airplanes for the army; more submarines for the navy; and increased defenses for the Panama Canal.

Action under private ownership of coal mines that will obtain greater continuity of production and greater public protection against "unbearable high" prices along the lines of the recommendations laid down by the Federal Coal Commission.

Relief for the farmer through lower taxes and freight rates; cheaper fertilizers; greater organization which would permit reduction of the wheat acreage; diversifications of farming; encouragement in the formation of cooperative marketing organizations; continuation of government loans, and assistance in exportation through the War Finance Corporation.

Sale of Muscle Shoals Asked.
Sale of Muscle Shoals together with a location for an auxiliary steam plant and right of way for a power line so that the agriculture of the nation may get greater supply and lower cost of fertilizer, with the sale price of the properties not a major consideration.

Anti-lynching legislation; additional appropriations for vocational training in agriculture for negroes, and creation of a commission of whites and negroes "to formulate a better policy for mutual understanding and confidence."

Extension of the Civil Service to the prohibition enforcement field forces exclusive of the members of the present force and placing in the classified service of postmasters of the first, second and third classes.

Opening of intra-coastal waterways; control of the flood waters of the Mississippi and Colorado

MUNICIPAL CHECKER TABLES AND HORSESHOE COURTS THE LATEST AT MIAMI

ON THE MUNICIPAL CHECKER TABLES AT MIAMI

PITCHING HORSESHOES UNDER THE PALMS

As many people play checkers, pitch horseshoes and fish at Miami participate in polo, golf or bridge, and more people live in moderate priced rooms, apartments and hotels than frequent the many palatial hotels.

Life at this popular winter resort is pictured as a continual round of yachting, dancing, polo, bathing, golf, and tennis, of million-dollar mansions, with beautiful back-grounds, and high priced hotels, as in the movies.

This is true. Miami is the winter playground of some of America's best known society millionaires who disport themselves in the most expensive manner imaginable and purchase thrills regardless of cost. But there is another side to the picture. The City of Miami maintains municipal checker-boards and horseshoe courts under the royal palms, where hundreds of the winter visitors enjoy themselves daily in the homelier and quieter sports.

Climate Greatest Attraction.
After all, this winter resort's greatest attraction is its warm, equable climate, with an average winter temperature of 68 degrees, and a summer temperature of only 80. This and the many other natural attractions lend the great-est enjoyment to life at no expense whatever.

The wonderful climate makes for life in the open all the year round, and attracts people of all classes. Every game played either indoors or out-of-doors in any part of the country is there played in the open, in the shade of palm and coconut trees. All this makes for health, for both young and old.

Miami is a typical American city of over 50,000 permanent population, with its hotels and comfortable houses where homelike accommodations can be had at moderate prices. The average citizen can there find apartments and hotel accommodations to suit any pocket-book. The millionaires have no monopoly of the charms of this model American city, though they do monopolize the spotlight of the daily press.

Rivers; construction of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence waterway and power project, and promotion of the super-power development of the Northeastern states.

Creation of a commission of judges and lawyers to simplify federal court procedure.

Limitation on child labor through constitutional amendment.

Regulation of radio interference and aviation.

Promotion of highway construction and reforestation.

Relief to occupants of reclamation projects by empowering the Secretary of the Interior to suspend, readjust and reassess all charges against water users.

Prohibition of the issuance of all tax-exempt securities by constitutional amendment.

In addition to these and a score more of recommendations, relatively of less importance, Mr. Coolidge discussed foreign debts, declaring himself against cancellation and for a reasonable adjustment in accordance with the principle adopted for the British debt, and announced he would oppose recognition of Russia so long as the ruling regime refused to recognize the right of private property ownership and the debt contracted by Russia after the overthrow of the Czar.

Government operation of the war-built merchant marine until shipping conditions are such as to allow it to be disposed of advantageously.

BIBLE CLASS IS SEEKING MEMBERS

Lecturers of Doctor Linscheid Attraction to Visitors from all Walks of Life.

Ada's only rival in a men's Bible class is New York City.

According to information available The Loyal Men's Bible class of Ada is the only one outside of New York City which meets in a hotel. This class, organized under the auspices of the First Christian church is just closing an attendance contest with a men's class in Elk City. At last report the Ada class was 60 points in the lead.

Organized in May, 1921, by the men of the First Christian church the class first met at the American theatre, and Dr. A. Linscheid, president of the Teachers' College, was selected as teacher. Later the meeting place was changed to the Chamber of Commerce rooms. When the Chamber of Commerce moved to the Memorial Hall, a cordial invitation came from Mr. F. J. McFarland, proprietor of the Hotel Harris, to meet in the banquet room of the hotel. The invitation was accepted and the class meets there every Sunday morning at 9:30.

While this class is under the direction of the First Christian church, the membership is not confined to that church. Men who claim no church affiliation are regular members, and every Sunday traveling men, guests of the hotel, are to be found in the class. This organization can also boast that it has a large number of members who have not missed a meeting since the first.

The great attraction, members claim, is the lecture by Doctor Linscheid which keeps the attendance record high. His explanation and application of the Bible lesson is so clear and practical that men like to hear it, therefore if a man hears one lecture he will come again.

Added to this are the special musical numbers by local talent and the class singing led by Prof. Oscar Parker of the Teachers' College.

The topic of next Sunday's lesson is, "The Outreach of the Early Church," a missionary lesson, in which is taught the early missionary journeys of the Disciples; also, how this lesson may be applied to the present day.

"The latch string is always out," says A. C. Chaney, president of the class.

tax collection is estimated at $35,576,000 while the cost of collecting customs revenues is placed at $12,821,845. Operations of the Coast Guard will account for another $19,000,000.

For good roads an expenditure of $30,000,000 is proposed, an increase of $5,000,000 over the outlay estimated for this year. This accounts for more than two-thirds of the $144,000,000 estimate for the Department of Agriculture. A reduction of more than $22,

Coolidge Seeks Slash In National Taxation

ordinary expenditure program. I am not unmindful of the demand for adjusted compensation for soldiers of the World War, which would include among its beneficiaries the able-bodied of our veterans as well as the disabled. I question if there is any sound reason for such a measure. The country is prosperous remunerative employment is available for the able-bodied veterans as well as for other citizens.

"For the disabled veterans of the war and the dependents of those who fell the country can not do too much. It has already spent nearly two billions of dollars and is now spending nearly half a billion dollars yearly in their behalf. That obligation it must and will continue to fulfill in fullest measure. And it is one of the most important of the duties and privileges of the Chief Executive to minister to the wants and needs of these wards and creditors of the nation.

"But the fit and able-bodied are offered the opportunity open to every other citizen. The government has no money to distribute to any class of its citizens that it does not take from the pockets of the people and the payment of a bonus to millions of our former soldiers could only be accomplished at a cost to the whole community, including the veterans themselves, far outweighing the benefits intended to be conferred. If I felt that a soldiers' bonus represented a great need and a proper obligation which should be fulfilled by this nation, I certainly would not make a recommendation which would be adverse thereto.

"We have now reached a point in our financial program where we can lighten the tax burden of the people, which is an added reason for taking a firm stand against any and all programs of spending that would tend to absorb the expected margin between receipts and expenditures."

600,000 in the estimated deficit of $24,679,673 of postal revenues is forecast for next year. Postal service expenditures payable from postal revenues are calculated at $11,210,000 as compared with $568,630,000 this year.

Costs of the more important civil functions of the government for next year are summarized in the budget as follows:

General law enforcement, $21,325,950; Foreign relations and protection of American interests abroad, $14,720,619; Administration of Indian affairs, $12,046,898; Promotion and regulation of commerce and industry, $14,470,582; Promotion and operation of marine transportation, $48,885,318; Promotion and regulation of agriculture, $25,934,842; Promotion of public health, $15,827,432; promotion of public education, $10,432,627; Science and research, $13,255,267; promotion of labor interests, $4,773,992; Immigration and naturalization, $3,748,977; administration of public domain, $16,515,949.

Christmas is out now that men talk more in their sleep than women. Well, a poor man should have an opportunity to talk sometime without being interrupted.

Wilson is known as our war president but we haven't any presidents known to collect our war debt.

The meanest man in the world is your roommate who borrows your best tie and orders grape fruit for breakfast.

The main reason the most of us fail to recognize opportunity is that it comes around disguised as hard work.

"FIGHTING BEAR" NAME GIVEN LANDIS BY CREE

"Fighting Bear" is the name Cree Indians who marked in "Pioneer Trail" with Cullen Landis have given to him. The Cree Indians were employed in making of thrilling scenes in the opening of the picture depicting early life in the days when the West was young. The Cree Indians were much impressed by the unusual athletic prowess of the premier actor who will be seen in this Vitaphone special production at the American theatre today. His riding and marksmanship won their admiration.

Chief Three Bears of the Cree Indians said that Landis was undoubtedly had been an Indian chief if he had been born one of them, so great is his skill in the saddle and with the gun. His knowledge of open air living also attracted great favor among the Indians.

During the days on location, the Indians took advantage of a lull in picture-taking activities at Chatsworth Mountain to adopt Landis as a member of their tribe. There was much discussion among the members as to what would be a fitting name for the new member of the tribe. Under Indian life, names are chosen to best designate the character and accomplishments of the person who bears it. After much debate, the elder of the Indian tribe decided "Fighting Bear" was the one most descriptive of Landis. So he was welcomed into the tribe with much pomp and ceremony. An Indian dance and pow-wow were held.
